

M.A.D.

M.A.D. Camp Teachers:

Marcia Clark created and directed M.A.D. Camp for ten years. She brings her experience as a musician, a theater director, and public school teacher. She has taught music at Berlin Elementary School for seventeen years and has been a member of the Vermont Philharmonic Orchestra for twenty years. She shares her love of art in all forms, teaching, and children.

Sarah Pulaski offers her creativity and her nine years of experience as an elementary classroom teacher at Twinfield Union School. Sarah is an arts and enrichment coordinator at her school. She enjoys providing learning opportunities for children that allow them to explore and express themselves through art.
